

Common questions

Part 1 - What kind of art do you like?

Part 1 - Is art popular in your country?

Part 2 - Describe a piece of art you like.

Part 3 - How can children benefit from learning art?

Part 3 - Why do you think some people enjoy looking at paintings and sculptures and others do not?

Part 3 - How has art changed in the last few decades in your country?

Vocabulary and expressions

Portray (v) - depict (someone or something) in a work of art or literature.

My favourite painting portrays a beautiful young woman in a blue dress.

Priceless (adj) - has such a high value that the price of it cannot be calculated.

The art museum has a number of priceless vases that I like to view from time to time.

Sculpture (n) - the art of forming solid objects that represent a thing, person, idea.

I'm not a big fan of paintings but I really enjoy sculptures made of metal or stone.

Abstract (adj) - existing as an idea, feeling, or quality, not as a material object.

I prefer abstract art that gives you the opportunity to interpret the meaning.

Renowned (adj) - famous.

We have many renowned artists in our city who are pushing the boundaries of art.

Aesthetic (adj) - An aesthetic object or a work of art is one that shows great beauty.

My parents like to collect furniture that is both aesthetic and functional.

Contemporary (adj) - existing or happening now.

I am really into contemporary art that depicts current social issues.

Focal point (n) - the thing that everyone looks at or is interested in.

The focal point of the painting is the couple holding hands.

Masterpiece (n) - a work of art such as a painting, film, or book that is made with great skill.

Many of Van Gogh's works are masterpieces.

Exhibition (n) - an event at which objects such as paintings are shown to the public.

We have many exhibitions in my city that anyone can visit.